Exhibit Prospectus 2015 - 2017

For

Fort Riley, Kansas, Fort Carson, Colorado, Fort Sill, Oklahoma and West Point, New York

Media: Oil, acrylic, and transparent watercolor paintings, photography, or 3 Dimensional sculpture and art objects. Works on paper include pastel, pencil, charcoal and colored pencil. This exhibit is open to all military and professional artists from around the world. The theme for this year's exhibits is Reflections of the Soul.

Note: This year's theme was specifically selected to allow for drawings and paintings of mood through landscape, portraiture and still life to be incorporated into the Reflections of Generosity (RoG) exhibit.

Work Size: Works submitted must be two or three dimensional and original in concept, design and execution. Installation artwork requires special review and approval. There is no minimum or maximum size restriction. Entries must be framed, gallery wrapped or include appropriate display material for a gallery setting.

Entry Requirements: Each artist may enter up to seven works of art and exceptions for additional works will be made on a case by case basis. High quality digital images of each art piece must be submitted for judging. Images should be in jpg format. Submissions may include Zip archives, JPG images, PDF, Text (.txt), and Microsoft Word documents (Word 2000 format). Other file formats, including applications, slide shows, flash, etc. may delay the review of your work. The primary point of contact for all submissions is as follows:

reflectionsofgenerosity@gmail.com

Please contact us if additional instructions are needed for e-mailing your submission.
